Dear Mr. McClellan:

This is a final response to your 21 June 2010 postmarked Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) request, received in the office of the Information and Privacy Coordinator on 1 July 2010, for information regarding the following questions:

1. What kinds of services does the CIA have available?
2. Is it true that [redacted] has access to a hundred million dollars in credit through the U.S. Treasury? (b)(6)
3. Is it true that officers of the Government back in the 1930s put hundred million dollar bonds on birth certificates to pay off other cooperations [sic] because U.S.A. cooperations [sic] became in debt to another country?

The FOIA was enacted to provide a means for the general public to access government records. Under the provisions of the FOIA, federal agencies are not required to answer questions posed as FOIA requests. Since your request does not constitute a request for records, we must decline to process it.

Sincerely,

Delores M. Nelson

Delores M. Nelson
Information and Privacy Coordinator
